and state that such transcripts are necessary because they are the hearings concerning the Order that is on appeal. Plaintiffs-Appellants Mary Grace Simpao, et al., have not requested the production of any transcript.

Plaintiffs-Appellants will raise on appeal the question of whether the settlement was fair, reasonable, and adequate, whether notice to the class was legally sufficient and whether the award of attorney's fees was just. Therefore we believe that these transcripts are unnecessary since the hearings consisted of argument by counsel concerning evidence otherwise in the record, i.e. copies of notices mailed, a proposed settlement, expert report, records of attorney billings, and statistics provided by the Government of Guam.

Plaintiff-Appellant prays the Court determine which party shall pay for the transcripts.
